

SEMINOLE COMMUNITY LIBRARY
AT ST. PETERSBURG COLLEGE, SEMINOLE CAMPUS

INFORMATION KIOSK POLICY

The information kiosk in the library lobby is maintained as a service to the campus and community. All materials must comply with the following:

1. All materials (notices, flyers, brochures, magazines, newspapers, etc.) must be presented to the library director or designee for review prior to posting.
2. Materials of an informational, educational, cultural, or recreational nature are welcome.
3. Bills, flyers, or other commercial advertisements soliciting the sale of products or services by for-profit entities are prohibited.
4. Materials approved for posting are for informational purposes only. Such approval does not imply endorsement by the City of Seminole or St. Petersburg College.
5. By authority of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, and in accord with College and Library policy, political and religious organizations may place informational and educational material in this kiosk, pending availability of space. No private individual has the right or authority to confiscate, discard, or destroy such material for the purpose of preventing its distribution to the general public.
